LEND ME A TENOR

July 16 - 25, 2010

DIRECTOR:
Joe Messina

PRODUCER:
Matt Colbert

If you need a break from reality, what better place to go than Cleveland, Ohio! Especially the Cleveland Opera Company's 1934 production of Otello, where the lead is to be played by the renowned "Il Stupendo", or was, until things started to go dreadfully wrong. What follows is a zany chain-reaction of mistaken identity, double entendres and innuendoes which took Broadway by storm and piled up Tony and Drama Desk awards. You like sophisticated comedy? Lend Me a Tenor isn't it – but it is a night of hilarity and fun!
